Day: 1 - Washington, D.C. - Tour Begins

Set forth on a grand historical tour featuring the timeless elegance and heritage of The Greenbrier. Experience this jewel of classic American resorts and come to understand its draw of over 200 years. A journey brimming with the history of America begins in Washington, D.C. Upon arrival in Washington, we will be transferred to our hotel. After time for checking in and relaxation our special group will enjoy a Please Go Away™ Vacations' Special Included Bonus Feature: WELCOME TO WASHINGTON DINNER. It will be an excellent time to relax and become better acquainted with our Please Go Away™ Vacations fellow adventurers. (PGAV-FD)

Day: 2 - Washington, D.C.

A picture-perfect day in DC starts at the White House Visitor Centre, seeing artifacts from the White House collection. Take a tour of DC's world-famous memorials and monuments, including the National World War II Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, Korean War Veterans Memorial, and Vietnam Veterans Memorial. Uncover treasures of the Smithsonian Institution with free time to visit any of the museums surrounding the National Mall – perhaps you'll take one small step into space exploration at the National Air and Space Museum or explore facets of the nation's story at the National Museum of American History. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner at a local restaurant followed by a twilight tour to see more of the capital's iconic marble and granite monuments. (B, D)

Day: 3 - Washington, D.C. - Arlington, VA - White Sulphur Springs, WV

This morning, visit Arlington National Cemetery. A narrated tour takes us to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the Kennedy gravesites. This afternoon, we make a stop at historical Front Royal for some free time before travelling through the beautiful mountains of West Virginia to White Sulphur Springs, arriving at The Greenbrier, the world-class resort that's been welcoming guests since 1778. Set off on a horse-drawn sleigh ride (weather permitting - otherwise a carriage ride may be substituted or may take place the following day) relishing the classic holiday atmosphere. This evening, we will enjoy our included dining experience amid the grandeur of this historic resort. (B, D)

Day: 4 - The Greenbrier Resort

With a storied past to explore and every resort luxury available to us, it's time to enjoy all The Greenbrier has to offer. This is a place steeped in history, from its earliest days when its natural mineral springs drew guests to "take the waters," to its long-established status as an elite retreat, where five sitting presidents had already stayed before the Civil War. Imagine these same grounds, repurposed by the U.S. government as well as the army during periods of war over the centuries. Take an introductory tour of the vast property before continuing on a guided tour of the formerly classified government bunker built under the West Virginia Wing in the 1950s.

The rest of the day is yours to spend as you please throughout the resort (while there are a number of included activities you can partake in at The Greenbrier Resort, others are paid and may require advanced reservations. To reserve a paid activity ahead of your trip, it can be booked directly with the resort within 60 days of arrival). Fill it with relaxing pastimes such as croquet, horseback riding, swimming, or shopping, enjoy a traditional afternoon tea, or try your luck at the Greenbrier Casino Club. Enjoy dining at the resort once again this evening. (B, D)

Day: 5 - White Sulphur Springs - Charlottesville - Williamsburg, VA

Feeling restored, bid farewell to The Greenbrier. Today, we will visit Monticello, the beautiful home and gardens of Thomas Jefferson, the third president of the United States and author of the Declaration of Independence. There will be time to tour the main house and to explore the area. Continue on to Williamsburg and settle into our hotel and enjoy an evening at leisure with rich historical surroundings and local dining to explore nearby. (B)

Day: 6 - Williamsburg, VA

Today, step back in time and explore Colonial Williamsburg and all its holiday decorations, where historical reenactors and artisans populate the streets and buildings, bringing 1770 to life. Enjoy time to tour this iconic site independently: Wander the cobblestone streets, explore the historic buildings, and enjoy lunch on your own with your pick of colonial or modern-style eateries on the grounds and nearby Merchant's Square. Then, gather for a Colonial-style farewell dinner at an historic tavern. (B, D)

Day: 7 - Williamsburg - Washington D.C.

Depart Richmond today heading toward Washington, D.C. Make a stop in Old Town Alexandria with some free time to explore and enjoy lunch on your own. Then, visit Mount Vernon (it is presently undergoing a multi-year mansion revitalization project which may preclude a full visit inside the house, but we will still see the mansion from the outside, outbuildings, Washington's tomb, garden and grounds) the beloved home of George Washington. Continue to our hotel for the evening and join a final toast to this historic journey. This evening, it's time for another Special Included Please Go Away™ Vacations Feature Bonus: INCLUDED FAREWELL DINNER JUST FOR OUR SELECT GROUP. (B, PGAV-FD)

Day: 8 - Washington, D.C. - Tour Ends

Our tour comes to a close this morning as we are transferred to the airport for our return flights home. As we fly it will be a good time to reflect upon the travel memories that have been made that will never be forgotten with friends old and new.
